CONDITIONS FOR THE SUBMITTED FILM

No entry fee is charged for submitting an animation to KLIK's competitions. Per filmmaker a maximum of 3 separate films may be submitted, which must all adhere to our procedures.

A film is eligible when:

- it contains a substantial amount of animation of any technique;
- its duration does not exceed 25 minutes;
- it was finished after 1 January 2016;
- has not been submitted to KLIK's previous competitions.

A film will be considered by the festival's appointed selection committee once the online form has been filled out and the selection copy has arrived at the KLIK office before 1 July 2017.

SELECTION & PROGRAMMING

- Filmmakers will be informed about selection & programming on September 1st the latest. After this notification filmmakers have to week to notify the festival if they wish to withdraw their film.
- If the film is selected for festival screening, the submitter must follow the technical procedures and criteria in regard to the master copy.
- Per selected film we give one out one festival pass that grants access to all festival programs.
- The festival cannot cover accommodation or travel costs.
- The festival programming & schedule lies entirely at the discretion of the festival
- KLIK is a versatile festival with many programs. We might want to screen films that are not selected for competition in other programs. The submitter will be notified about this and asked for permission.

USAGE OF THE SUBMITTED MATERIALS

- KLIK is granted the right to screen the submitted films, with a maximum of five screenings, during the festival period (17-22 October 2017) at the festival location(s) in Amsterdam for which it is not charged with an entry fee. And two additional promotional screenings, one in KINO Rotterdam and one in LAB Amsterdam after the festival period, within the timeframe of one year. The contact person will be notified about the date(s).
- To do justice to their nature, KLIK might also screen music videos outside of cinemas to entertain audiences in lively public spaces.
- KLIK is granted the right to use excerpts (max 10% of the length) and film stills for promotional purposes on the internet, television and other media. For private press viewings KLIK has the possibility to screen your full film as a preview.
- The information provided by the participant in the entry form will be used for festival publications. Catalogue writings are entirely at the discretion of the festival. KLIK accepts no liability in the event that its publications reproduce inaccuracies in submitted materials.
- In case of faulty projection, the festival cannot be held liable for immaterial damages suffered by the director, producer or distributor.
