

Call for Entries – The Experimental Film & Video Competition

The 25th Tel-Aviv International Student Film Festival

We are delighted to invite you: students in their last year, graduate students and Independent filmmakers to submit your recent films to the 2023 Experimental Film & Video Competition.

The festival will take place from June 25th – July 1st, 2023 in Tel Aviv-Yafo, Israel.

The festival, dating back to 1986, showcases a new generation of emerging film talents from around the world. The festival is an opportunity for young filmmakers from all over the world to present short innovative cinema, and participate in gala screenings, masterclasses, conferences, and special tributes.

The Experimental Film & Video Competition will take place for the fifth time, accepting international films for the first time. The competition is dedicated to short films ranging from different visual arts. Its mission is to allow young experimental filmmakers to present their recent works, filmmakers who aren't afraid to challenge the traditional cinema while formulating new, original and daring avant-garde cinematic ways of expression.

The selected works will screen at Tel Aviv during the week of the festival. The judging team will consist of different film curators and artists from Israel and abroad who will choose the winning project.
