

Regulations for Entering and Participating

The 27th Tel-Aviv International Student Film Festival

June 25th –July 2nd, 2025

The International Competition

Registration & film submission deadline: February 23rd, 2025

Screening copies of accepted films deadline: April 16th, 2025

Below, are the rules and regulations for entering and participating in the Tel-Aviv International Student Film Festival, 2025:

Entry Conditions

- The festival only accepts films made in school programs, universities, or professional institutes. Registration of films can only be done by the school's representative.
- The festival accepts films in the following categories: Fiction, Documentary, Animation, Experimental, and Hybrid. For experimental films, there is a different official competition in the festival.
- No submission fees, no premiere status required.
- Each school may submit up to 3 films, each up to 30 minutes in length.
- Films submitted must have been completed during the years 2024-2025.
- Submissions may be in a fine-cut form (Picture lock). If the film is missing color, sound mix etc., please add specific information in the submission form about what is missing.
- Films must include embedded English subtitles, including English-speaking films.
- Films submitted in the past cannot be submitted again.

Registration & Film Submission

- Films should be submitted on the website as screeners and enabled for download (only Vimeo or YouTube).
- Registration forms must be filled out on the website.
- A password must be provided for protected films.
- Films should be submitted only if they have not been released commercially, and if they haven't been presented on television, VOD, or via the internet with free access.
- An SRT file in English must be submitted upon registration.
- Prior to sending, please ensure the propriety of all provided links.

Program

- The festival will conduct pre-selection.
- Notifications regarding the selection for the competition will be delivered in March 2025.
- Winners of the competition will be awarded by the Tel Aviv International Student Film Festival.
- Prize-bearing competition-
 - The prizes are in New Israeli Shekel (NIS):
 - Best Film- 24,000₪
 - Most Promising Director- 10,000₪
 - Best Script- 5,000₪
 - Best Cinematography- 5,000₪
 - Best Editing- 5,000₪
 - Audience Award- 2,000₪
 - Special Mention for First Film
 - Special Mention
- The festival may change the amount of the prizes according to its considerations.
- In case of selection, the copyright owners of the film have the option to decide whether to allow the festival to screen their films in our non-competition program, The Film Bus Project. The Film Bus travels around Israel and screens selected films from the festival, joined by 30 students from Israel and around the world. The dates are 15-19.06.2025. The festival will send an email about accepted films and ask for approval to screen the films in this program. Film creators may also choose to join the Film Bus during the week prior to the film festival.

Technical Specifications FOR THEATER

The format accepted is DCP - Digital Cinema Package.

It is strongly recommended that each DCP have a Total Quality Check (TQC) before sending it.

Image

- 2K & 4K DCP are both accepted, but 4K DCP will be screened as 2K.
- 24 fps & 25 fps & 30 fps DCP are all accepted, but 24 fps DCP are preferred.

Audio Channel

- 2.0 Channel tracks (stereo) or 5.1 Channel tracks (Surround).
- 5.1 Channel DCPs are preferred.

Security

Only non-encrypted DCPs are accepted (no KDMs).

Subtitles

- All films selected for the festival must be screened in their original language with English subtitles.
- The festival will add Hebrew subtitles to the accepted films.
- We kindly ask you to send English SRT files that match to the DCP.

Shipping material to the festival

- DCP copies can be sent via link.

Copyright

By registering for the festival and uploading a film, the submitter agrees to the following terms:

- Submitters shall agree to allow the Festival to present the film in theaters as well as in an online platform (we will allow geo-blocking if necessary).
- The copyright owners of the film authorize the above-mentioned uses and also the making of free reproduction of stills and excerpts (maximum 3 minutes) for any of the festival publications and promotional materials.
- The copyright owners of the film authorize the festival to schedule up to 3 screenings of the film during and after the festival.
- The copyright owners authorize that the winning films will be used for internal marketing and preservation needs.
- Copyright owners warrant that they own and/or control the IP rights in and to the content so as to allow the festival to make use of the film in accordance with these rules and regulations and that the use of the content by the festival does not violate the privacy rights, publicity rights, copyrights, contract rights or any other rights of any person or entity. You agree to pay for all royalties, fees, and any other monies owing any person or entity by reason of the use of any content embedded in the film.
- Copyright owners authorize that the festival may save their film in the festival archives for internal purposes only.

Participants and Accommodation

Students whose films are selected will be invited to the festival and hosted by local film students. Accommodation (lodging and one meal a day) will be provided by the festival.

For any questions regarding the competition or the terms and conditions, please contact us at intlcomptau@gmail.com.

Good luck!

Yoav Geva & Mika Hashin

Directors of the International Competition

The Tel Aviv International Student Film Festival

intlcomptau@gmail.com